society, or payment of any amount in excess of the original issue price for any treasury bill or any other similar financial instrument sold at a discount from face value, shall, before making any other deductions, deduct from the interest a medical levy at the rate of one per centum and that bank or financial institution shall account for such levy.

(2) A levy deducted under subsection (1) shall be paid by the bank or financial institution to the Commissioner-General on or before the fourteenth day of the month following the month in which the deduction is made.

(3) A bank or financial institution shall, on making the payment of interest under subsection (1), record on the form prescribed by the Commissioner-General the amount of the interest paid, the amount of levy deducted from the interest and such other particulars as the Commissioner-General may require.

(4) Any bank or financial institution which has made a payment of interest in accordance with subsection (1), shall, within fourteen days from the end of each charge year, or such longer period as the Commissioner-General may generally or in any particular case allow, forward to the Commissioner-General the form referred to in subsection (3).

Penalty for late payment
of levy

5. Where any amount of levy is not paid within the period stipulated in subsection (2) of section four, a penalty equal to five per centum of the unpaid amount shall be paid by the bank or financial institution for each month or part thereof which the levy remains unpaid, and for the purposes of recovery and collection such penalty shall be deemed to be a part of the levy:

Provided that the Commissioner-General may, for sufficient cause shown, remit the whole or any part of the penalty.

Recovery of levy
Cap. 323

6. Subject to the provisions of this Act, sections seventy-nine, seventy-nine A, seventy-nine B, seventy-nine C and seventy-nine D of the Income Tax Act shall apply, with necessary modification, to the recovery of the levy under this Act as they apply to the recovery of tax under the Income Tax Act.

Exemption

7. The Minister may, by statutory order, exempt any person or partnership from payment of medical levy.

Regulations

8. The Minister may, by statutory instrument, make regulations for the better carrying out of the purposes of this Act.
