PART II

ESTABLISHMENT AND CONSTITUTION OF COUNCILS

Establishment of councils

3. (1) The Minister may, by statutory order, establish for any district, a city council, municipal council or town council and the name of the council shall include the name of the district.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), the Minister shall, on the recommendation of the appropriate city council, municipal council or town council, establish a management board.

(3) The Minister, may by statutory order, confer on a town council established under subsection (1), the status of a municipal council and shall determine the name of that municipal council.

(4) On and after the date on which a statutory order under this section has effect, a reference in any written law, contract or other instrument or document to the name of the town council to which the order relates shall be construed as a reference to the name of the municipal council as determined by the order.

Cities

4. (1) The President, may by proclamation confer on a municipal council established under section 3 the status of a city and city council and shall determine the name by which that city and city council shall be known.

(2) On and after the date on which a proclamation under this section comes into operation, a reference in any written law, contract or other instrument or document to the name of the municipality or municipal council to which the proclamation relates shall be construed as a reference to the name of the city or city council, as determined by the proclamation.

5. (1) The Minister may, by statutory order, in this Act referred to as a transfer and vesting order, make provisions set out in the Second Schedule for changes that are necessary or appropriate as regards the constitution, property, rights, obligation and staff of, and any other matter relating to, any council affected by a change in its area, any new council or any council established for a district which ceases to exist, where as a consequence of a statutory order made by the President under the Provincial and District Boundaries Act—

Changes affecting districts

Cap. 286

- (a) a new district is established;
- (b) the area of a district is altered; or
- (c) a district ceases to exist.

(2) Where a district ceases to exist, a transfer and vesting order made in respect of the council established for that district shall include provision for the dis establishment of the council.

(3) Where the name of a district is changed, the name of the council established for that district shall be changed to conform to that of the district.

6. A local authority is a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal, capable of suing and being sued in its corporate name, and with power, subject to the provisions of this Act and of any other written law, to do all other acts and things that a body corporate may do by law and as are necessary for, or incidental to, the carrying out of its functions and powers set out in this Act.

Incorporation of local authority

7. (1) Subject to section 3(1) and (2), the corporate name of a council is the name assigned to that council in the statutory order establishing the council.

Corporate name of council

(2) Subject to subsection (1), the Minister may, by statutory order, and after consultation with a council, alter the corporate name of that council.

Seal

8. (1) The seal of the council is a device that may be determined by the council and kept by the principal officer.

(2) Subject to section 14, the affixing of the seal shall be authenticated by the mayor or deputy mayor or council chairperson or deputy council chairperson and the principal officer or any other person authorised in that behalf by a resolution of the council.

(3) A contract or instrument which, if entered into or executed by a person not being a body corporate, would not be required to be under the seal, may be entered into or executed without seal on behalf of the council by the principal officer or any other person generally or specifically authorised in that behalf by the council.

(4) A document purporting to be under the seal of the council or issued on behalf of the council shall be received in evidence and shall be considered to be so executed, as the case may be, without further proof, unless the contrary is proved.

Functions of mayor or council chairperson

9. (1) A mayor or council chairperson is head of a council.

(2) The functions of a mayor or council chairperson are to—

- (a) oversee the implementation of the council decisions or resolutions;
- (b) preside over council meetings;
- (c) attend to civic and ceremonial functions; and
- (d) promote public engagement and participation in local governance.

Election of deputy mayor or deputy council chairperson and vacancy

10. A deputy mayor or deputy council chairperson shall be elected—

(a) When a council first sits after—

- (i) a general election; or
- (ii) the council is established; and

(b) subject to this Act, at the first ordinary meeting of the council held immediately after—

- (i) the expiry of the term of two and a half years from the date of the last general election; or
- (ii) a vacancy occurs in the office of the deputy mayor or deputy council chairperson.

(2) The office of deputy mayor or deputy council chairperson becomes vacant if the—

- (a) deputy mayor or deputy council chairperson resigns by giving notice in writing to the mayor or council chairperson;

(b) deputy mayor or deputy council chairperson ceases to be a councillor as provided in the Constitution; or

Cap. 1

(c) ward, in respect of which the deputy mayor or deputy council chairperson is councillor, becomes part of another council.

(3) A deputy mayor or deputy council chairperson who resigns from office is not eligible for re-election as deputy mayor or deputy council chairperson for the remainder of the term of that council.

(4) where a vacancy occurs in the office of deputy mayor or deputy council chairperson, an election shall be held in accordance with subsection (1) (b) (ii).

11. (1) Subject to the other provisions of this section, a deputy mayor or deputy council chairperson shall hold office for a term of two and a half years and may be re-elected for one further term of two and a half years.

Tenure of office of deputy mayor or
council
chairperson

(2) A deputy mayor or deputy council chairperson elected in accordance with section 10 (4) shall serve for the unexpired term of that office and is deemed—

(a) to have served a full term as deputy mayor or deputy council chairperson if, at the date on which the deputy mayor or deputy council chairperson assumed office, at least one and a half years remain before the date of the next elections for deputy mayors and deputy council chairpersons; or

(b) not to have served a full term as deputy mayor or deputy council chairperson if, at the date on which the deputy mayor or deputy council chairperson assumed office, less than one and a half years remain before the date of the next elections for deputy mayors and deputy council chairpersons.

(3) A deputy mayor or deputy chairperson elected in accordance with section 10 (1) (a) (ii) is deemed—

(a) to have served a full term as deputy mayor or deputy council chairperson if, at the date on which the deputy mayor or deputy council chairperson assumed office, at least one and a half years remain before the date of the next elections for deputy mayors and deputy council chairpersons; or

Discharge of functions of mayor or council chairperson during vacancy or absence	13. The functions of the office of the mayor or council chairperson of a council shall, whenever the office of the mayor or council chairperson of a council is vacant or the mayor or council chairperson is absent or is for any other cause prevented from, or incapable of, carrying out the functions of office, be carried out— (a) by the deputy mayor or deputy council chairperson of the council; or (b) in the absence of the deputy mayor or deputy council chairperson, by a councillor elected by the council.
Validity of discharge of functions	14. The validity of any functions carried out by a person purporting to hold or discharge the functions of the office of mayor, deputy mayor, council chairperson or deputy council chairperson of a council shall not be affected by any defect in appointment by reason that the person was not qualified to do so.
Meetings and proceedings of council	15. The Third Schedule applies to meetings and proceedings of a council.

PART III FUNCTIONS

Functions of local authority	16. (1) A local authority shall discharge functions conferred on it by this Act within the area of that local authority, and may, with the approval of the Minister discharge that function outside the area of that local authority.
Cap. 1	(2) Without prejudice to the Constitution, the functions of a local authority within an area are as set out in the First Schedule.
General provision with respect to discharge of functions	17. (1) Whenever by this Act a power is conferred on a local authority to establish and maintain an undertaking, service or facility, the local authority may— (a) control the undertaking, service or facility and regulate its use by the public or any class of the public; (b) join with the Government, another local authority or, with the approval of the Minister, any other person or authority in establishing and maintaining the undertaking, service or facility; or (c) abolish or discontinue the undertaking, service or facility.

(2) A local authority shall discharge a function conferred on it by this Act, subject to any other written law relating to the discharge of that function by the local authority.

18. Subject to the Constitution, the Minister may, by statutory order, confer on a local authority power not otherwise conferred on the local authority by this Act or any other written law, which the Minister considers necessary in the interests or for the well being of the inhabitants in, or for the good rule and governance of, the area of that local authority.

Power of Minister to confer additional functions on local authority
Cap. 1

19. (1) A local authority may enter into contracts necessary for the discharge of any of the local authority's functions.

Contracts

(2) A contract made by a local authority shall be made in accordance with the standing orders of the local authority, this Act or any other written law and, in the case of contracts for the execution of works or the supply of goods or materials, the standing orders shall—

(a) require that, except as otherwise provided by or under the standing orders, a notice of the intention of the local authority to enter into the contract shall be published and tenders invited; and

(b) regulate the manner in which that notice shall be published and tenders invited.

(3) A person who enters into a contract with a local authority is not bound to inquire whether the standing orders of the local authority which apply to the contract have been complied with, and the contract entered into by a local authority, if otherwise valid, has effect despite the standing orders applicable to that contract not having been complied with.

20. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a local authority may, with the approval of the Minister, make standing orders for regulating the—

Standing orders

(a) proceedings and business for preserving order, at meetings of the council, a committee or a sub committee; and

(b) entering into contracts by the local authority.

(2) A contract entered into by a local authority shall be in conformity with the Public Procurement Act, 2008, and any other written law.

Act No. 12 of 2008

(3) The standing orders under this section may provide for the exclusion of a councillor or member of a committee or sub committee from a meeting of the council, committee or sub committee—

(a) if it is necessary for preserving order at the meeting; or

(b) whilst any contract, proposed contract or other matter in which the councillor or member has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest is under consideration.

Acquisition of land

21. (1) A local authority may acquire land by agreement whether by way of purchase, lease, exchange or gift.

(2) Where the acquisition by a local authority of land under the powers conferred under subsection (1) is being hindered by reason of the inability of the parties to agree on the terms of the acquisition or any other cause, the President may, on an application by the local authority and on being satisfied that the land is land to which the Lands Acquisition Act applies and that its acquisition by the local authority is necessary or expedient acquire land—

(a) in the interest of public safety, public order, public morality, public health or urban and regional planning; or

(b) in order to secure the development or utilisation of that or other land for a purpose beneficial to the inhabitants of the area of the local authority.

(3) All expenses and compensation incurred as a result of the acquisition shall be paid by the local authority into the Consolidated Fund and, on payment being made, the estate of any land so acquired by the President shall be transferred to the local authority.

Acceptance of gifts of property
Act No. 3 of 2012

22. (1) Subject to the Anti-Corruption Act, 2012, a local authority may accept, hold and administer any gift of property for any local public purpose, or for the benefit of the inhabitants of the area or any part of the area of the local authority, and may execute any works, including works of maintenance or improvement, incidental to the exercise of the powers conferred by this section.

(2) Where the purposes of the gift are purposes for which the local authority is empowered to expend money raised from a rate, the local authority may, subject to any condition or restriction attaching to the exercise of that power defray expenditure incurred in the exercise of the powers conferred by subsection (1) out of monies so raised.

Disposal of
property

23. (1) Subject to subsection (3), a local authority may sell, let or otherwise dispose of any property belonging to the local authority.

(2) Where the local authority intends to sell property belonging to the local authority, the local authority shall, before the sale, cause a valuation of the land or building to be carried out by the Department responsible for valuation or by a Valuation Surveyor approved by the Minister.

(3) A local authority shall not sell or let for a period of fourteen years or more, or otherwise dispose of, any property belonging to the local authority, except with the prior approval of the Minister.

Grants and loans by local authority

24. (1) A local authority may, with the approval of the Minister, make grants or loans of money—

(a) towards the establishment or maintenance of the institutions, not being of a private character, namely—

(i) hospitals, libraries, art galleries, museums, parks, recreation facilities and musical or scientific institutions;

(ii) higher education institutions and schools;

(iii) institutions providing accommodation for the aged, destitute, infirm, or for orphans; or

(iv) other institutions that the local authority may determine;

(b) to persons for educational purposes; or

(c) to officers or employees of the local authority for a purpose that the Minister may determine.

(2) A local authority may, with the approval of the Minister, make a grant of money to any association of local authorities formed for the purposes of consultations as to the common interest of those local authorities.

Cap. 1

(3) Subject to the Constitution, a local authority may, with the approval of the Minister, provide loans or monies—

(a) to another local authority; or

(b) to a person or authority for the construction, purchase and maintenance of buildings for use as dwellings or clubs and, where it is in the public interest, for business or professional purposes.

Imposition of levies
Cap. 1
Act No. 3 of 2014

25. (1) Subject to the Constitution and the Business Regulatory Act, 2014, a local authority may make by-laws to impose a levy on—

- (a) leviable persons owning or occupying property or premises situated within the area of the local authority;
- (b) leviable persons carrying on a business, trade or occupation within the area of the local authority; or
- (c) the purchase or sale of a commodity within the area of the local authority.

(2) By-laws imposing a levy may make—

- (a) different provision with respect to different classes of property or premises, different classes of businesses, trade or occupations and different classes of commodities; and

(b) provide for—

- (i) the manner and times at which and the persons by whom a levy is payable and collected;
- (ii) exemptions from a levy; or
- (iii) suspension of a levy, in whole or in part.

(3) The proceeds of a levy accrue to the local authority.

(4) The amount of any levy which is not paid is recoverable by the local authority as a civil debt.

(5) In this section, “leviable person” means—

- (a) a person who is eighteen years or above; and
- (b) a body of persons, corporate or unincorporate.

Procedures and criteria for licensing

Act No. 3 of 2014 of other fees

and charges
Act No. 3
of 2014

26. A proposed by law or council resolution introducing a licence permit or certificate under this Act, shall be subject to the licensing procedure and criteria under the Business Regulatory Act, 2014.

27. (1) Subject to the Business Regulatory Act, 2014, a local authority may impose fees or charges payable to the local authority—

- (a) for a licence or permit issued under any regulation or by-law made under this Act;
- (b) for a service or facility provided or goods or documents supplied by the local authority in pursuance of or in connection with the performance of any function of the local authority.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), fees and charges imposed by a local authority under subsection (1) shall be regulated by by-laws or, if not so regulated, may be imposed by resolution of the council.

(3) A local authority shall not impose any fees or charges in respect of owners rates and personal levy without the prior approval of the Minister.

28. A councillor shall be paid allowances as determined by the Emoluments Commission. Allowances

29. (1) A city council, municipal council or town council may appoint to the dignity of alderman any person who has held office as a councillor of that council for a period or periods amounting in the aggregate to not less than ten years. Alderman

(2) If a city council, municipal council or town council considers that a person appointed to the dignity of alderman has subsequently ceased to be worthy of the dignity, the city council, municipal council or town council shall revoke the appointment.

(3) Where the number of persons who are appointed as aldermen equals or exceeds one third of the councillors, no further appointment of aldermen may be made.

(4) An alderman is entitled whether or not the alderman is a councillor, to retain the title of alderman.

(5) A person who immediately before the coming into operation of this Act, was an alderman of a city council or municipal council shall be deemed to have been appointed to that dignity under this Act.

(6) An alderman may attend a meeting of the council.

30. (1) A city council, municipal council or town council may admit to the status of honorary freeman of the city, municipality or town a person of distinction who has rendered eminent services to the city or municipality. Freeman

(2) Subject to subsection (4), if a city council, municipal council or town council considers that a person admitted to the status of honorary freeman of the city, municipality or town has subsequently ceased to be worthy of the status, the city council, municipal council or town council shall annul the admission of the person to that status.

(3) The power of admitting or annulling the admission of a person to the status of honorary freeman of a city, municipality or town shall not be exercised except by resolution of the city council, municipal council or town council supported by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the councillors.

(4) The principal officer of a city council, municipal council or town council shall keep a list, to be styled the honorary freemen's roll, in which the names of persons admitted to the status of honorary freeman of the city, municipality or town are inscribed and from which shall be removed the name of any person whose admission to that status has been annulled.

SECOND SCHEDULE

(Sections 5 and 82)

TRANSFER AND VESTING ORDERS

1. In this Schedule—

Interpretation

“predecessor” means a council established under the repealed Act, or a council established under this Act for a district which has ceased to exist or whose area has been decreased by changes in the area of the district; and

“successor” means a council established under this Act for the same district as a council established under the repealed Act or for a district which has ceased to exist or whose areas has been increased by changes in the area of the district.

2. A transfer and vesting order may make provisions for—

Vesting order

(a) the transfer to the successor of the funds, accounts investments and other property of the predecessor;

(b) the transfer to the successor of any rights, liabilities of the predecessor, except that in any case where an order is made as a result of a change in the areas of the predecessor and the successor, any transfer of the kind mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) shall be commensurate with the changes involved;

(c) the substitution of the successor for the predecessor in any legal proceedings;

(d) in any case in which both predecessor and successor are continuing councils, the payment of compensation, or of any contribution, by the successor to the predecessor, or the giving of guarantees by the one to the other;

(e) the transfer of staff and provisions for the transfer of superannuation benefits; and

(f) the preservation and transfer into proper custody of the record of a council.

(2) In the case of a transfer and vesting order made under section 5 the order may also provide for the alteration of the constitution of the council concerned.

THIRD SCHEDULE

(Section 15)

PROCEEDINGS OF COUNCIL

Ordinary and special meetings

1. (1) A council shall hold an ordinary meeting for the transaction of business at least once in every three months at a place, on a day and at a time that the council may appoint.

(2) Despite subparagraph (1), a newly established council shall hold its first ordinary meeting within three months from the date of its establishment.

(3) A mayor or council chairperson may, with the approval of the Provincial Local Government Officer, convene a special meeting of the council at any time, and shall convene a special meeting within twenty one days, or a lesser period that may be prescribed by the standing orders of the council, after the mayor receives a written request for a meeting signed by not less than one third of the councillors and stating the reasons for the special meeting.

Notice of
meetings

2. (1) The principal officer of a council shall, at least twenty four hours before the time appointed for the holding of a meeting of a council, notify every councillor, in writing, of the place, day and time of the meeting and of the business proposed to be transacted at the meeting.

(2) No business shall be transacted at a special meeting of a council other than that specified in the notice relating thereto.

Quorum

3. (1) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph—

(a) at an ordinary meeting of a council, one half of the whole number of councillors of which the council consists shall form a quorum; or

(b) at a special meeting of a council, two thirds of the whole number of councillors of which the council consists shall form a quorum.

(2) Where, owing to—

(a) vacancies in the membership of a council;

(b) a declaration of interest under paragraph 6; or

- (c) a combination of the circumstances referred to in subparagraphs (a) and (b), less than two thirds of the councillors are at the same time able to take part in the consideration or discussion of, or to vote on, any question, the quorum of the council in any proceedings relating to that question shall be determined by the councillors holding office and who have not declared interest under paragraph 6 and not all the councillors of that council.

4. There shall preside at any meeting of a council—

Presiding in council

- (a) the mayor or council chairperson;
- (b) in the absence of the mayor or council chairperson, the deputy mayor or deputy council chairperson; or
- (c) in the absence of the mayor and the deputy mayor or the council chairperson and the deputy council chairperson, a councillor that the council may elect at that meeting.

5. A decision of a council on any question shall be by a majority of the councillors present and voting at a meeting, and in the event of an equality of votes, the person presiding at the meeting shall have a casting vote, in addition to that person's deliberative vote.

Voting in council

6. (1) If a councillor has any pecuniary interest, direct or indirect, in any contract, proposed contract or of other matter, and is present at a meeting of the council at which the contract or other matter is the subject of consideration, the councillor shall, at the meeting, as soon as is practicable after the commencement thereof, disclose the fact, and shall not take part in the consideration or discussion of, or vote on any question with respect to, the contract or other matter, except that, this paragraph shall not apply to an interest in a contract or other matter which a councillor may have as an occupier of a house owned by the council or as a rate payer or inhabitant of the area of the council or as an ordinary consumer of electricity or water, or to an interest in any matter relating to the terms on which the right to participate in any service, including the supply of goods, is offered to the public.

Declaration of interest

(2) For the purposes of this paragraph, a person shall be treated as having indirectly a pecuniary interest in a contract or other matter, if—

- (a) the person or any nominee of the person is a member or director of a company or other body with which the contract is made or is proposed to be made or which has a direct pecuniary interest in the matter under consideration; or

(b) the person is a partner, or is in the employment, of a person with whom the contract is made or is proposed to be made or who has a direct pecuniary interest in the other matter under consideration, except that—

(i) this sub-paragraph shall not apply to membership of, or employment under, any statutory corporation;

(ii) a member or director of a company or body shall not, by reason only of the person's membership or directorship, be treated as being so interested if the person is not beneficially interested in any shares of that company or other body.

(3) Where a councillor has indirectly a pecuniary interest in a contract or other matter and would not fall to be treated as having an interest but for the fact that the councillor has a beneficial interest in shares of a company or other body then, if the total nominal value of these shares does not exceed one hundredth of the total nominal value of the issued share capital of the company or body, so much of sub paragraph (1) as prohibits that person from taking part in the consideration or discussion of, and from voting on any question with respect to, the contract or other matter shall not apply to the person, without prejudice, however, to the duty of disclosure imposed by sub paragraph (1), except that, where the share of the company or other body is of more than one class, this sub paragraph shall not apply if the total nominal value of all the shares of any one class in which the person has a beneficial interest exceeds one-hundredth part of the total issued share capital of that class of the company or other body.

(4) In the case of married persons, the interest of one spouse shall, if known to the other be deemed for the purpose of this paragraph to be also an interest of that other spouse.

(5) A general notice given in writing to the principal officer of a council by a councillor to the effect that the councillor or the councillor's spouse is a member or director or in the employment of a specified company or other body, or that the councillor or the councillor's spouse is a partner or in the employment of a specified person, shall, unless and until the notice is withdrawn, be deemed to be a sufficient disclosure of the councillor's interest in any contract, proposed contract or other matter relating to that company or other body or to that person which may be the subject of consideration after the date of the notice.

(6) The principal officer of a council shall record in a book to be kept for that purpose, particulars of any disclosure made under sub-paragraph (1), and of any notice given under sub-paragraph (5), and the book shall be open at all reasonable times to the inspection of any councillor.

(7) If any person fails to comply with the provisions of sub-paragraph (1), the person shall for each offence be liable, on conviction, to a imprisonment for a term not exceeding fourteen years.

(8) No prosecution shall be instituted against any person for an offence under this paragraph except by or on behalf of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

(9) The Minister may, subject to conditions that the Minister may think fit to impose, remove any disability imposed by this section in any case in which the number of councillor so disabled at any one time would be so great a proportion of the whole as to impede the transaction of business, or in any other case in which it appears to the Minister that it is in the interests of the inhabitants of the area of council that the disability should be removed.

(10) In this regulation, the expression “shares” includes stock and the expression “share capital” shall be construed accordingly.

7. (1) A council may adjourn any meeting of the council from time to time and from place to place.

Adjournment
of meetings

(2) If at any meeting of a council a quorum is not present, the councillors present or, if there are no councillors present, the principal officer of the council shall adjourn the meeting and may appoint for the adjourned meeting place, day and time that may be considered suitable.

8. (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (2), all meetings of a council or a committee shall be open to the public.

Admission of public to meetings

(2) A council or committee may, by resolution, exclude the public from a meeting whenever publicity would be prejudicial to the public interest by reason of the confidential nature of the business to be transacted or for other special reasons stated in the resolution and arising from the nature of that business or of the proceedings.

(3) The provision of this paragraph shall be without prejudice to any power of exclusion conferred by the standing orders of a council for preserving order at meetings of the council and nothing in this section contained shall be construed as requiring a council to permit the taking of photographs of any proceedings, or the use of any means to enable persons not present to see or hear any proceedings or the making of any oral report on any proceedings as they take place.

Minutes

9. (1) A council shall cause minutes to be kept in the English language of the proceedings at every meeting of the council and shall cause to be recorded therein the names of the councillors present at that meeting.

(2) The minutes of the proceedings of a council shall, after amendment if necessary, be confirmed by the council as a true record of the proceedings and signed by the person presiding at the same or the next meeting of the council.

(3) Within one month after the minutes of any proceedings of a council have been confirmed and signed, there shall be furnished to the Minister a number of copies thereof that the Minister may determine.

(4) The minutes of the proceedings of a council, other than proceedings from which the public have been excluded in pursuance of a resolution adopted under paragraph (2), shall, at all reasonable times, be open to the inspection of any interested person.

Standing and

10. (1) A council may establish standing and occasional committees consisting of a number of members that the council may determine, for the purpose of examining and reporting on any matter and of discharging any functions of the council delegated to them under this Act.

(2) A council consisting of more than six councillors shall in the exercise of the powers conferred by subsection (1), establish a standing committee for the purpose of—

(a) advising the council on financial matters; and

(b) discharging functions of the council relating to finance that may be delegated to it under this Act or as may be conferred or imposed on it by or under any other written law.

(3) A council may abolish any committee, established by it under this section, except the standing committee.

11. (1) The members of a committee shall be appointed by the council from amongst persons who are councillors or are qualified for election as councillors, except that—

Membership
of committees

(a) a person other than a councillor shall not be a member of the standing committee;

(b) not less than two thirds of the members of a committee, other than the standing committee, shall be councillors.

(2) A person shall cease to be a member of a committee if—

(a) being a councillor at the time of the person's appointment, the person ceases to be a councillor; or

(b) not being a councillor at the time of the person appointment, the person ceases to be qualified for election as a councillor; or

(c) the person's appointment is revoked by the council.

(3) There shall be a chairperson of every committee, who shall be elected by the committee from among the members of the committee who are councillors and who shall hold office until a time that the chairperson—

(a) ceases to be a member of the committee; or

(b) is removed from office by the committee, except that, in the exercise of its powers under this subsection, a committee shall act in accordance with any directions of the council.

12. (1) Meetings of a committee shall be held as required and may be adjourned from time to time and from place to place.

Proceedings
of
committees

(2) The meetings of the council shall be open to the public.

(3) The quorum at a meeting of a committee shall be a number of members that may be prescribed by the standing orders of the council or, if no quorum is so prescribed, two members.

(4) There shall preside at any meeting of a committee

(a) the chairperson; or

(b) in the absence of the chairperson, a member of the committee that the committee may elect for that meeting.

(5) Any question proposed for decision by a committee shall be determined by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting at a meeting of the committee at which a quorum is present.

(6) At all meetings of a committee, each member present shall have one vote on a question proposed for decision by the committee and, in the event of an equality of votes, the person presiding at the meeting shall have, in addition to a deliberative vote, a casting vote.

(7) subparagraph 6 applies in respect of members of a committee with the necessary modifications.

Minutes

13. (1) A committee shall cause minutes to be kept in the English language of the proceedings at every meeting of the committee and shall cause to be recorded therein the names of the members of the committee present at that meeting.

(2) The minutes of the proceedings of a committee shall, after amendment if necessary, be confirmed by the committee as a true record of the proceedings and signed by the person presiding at the same or the next meeting of the committee.

(3) Within one month after the minutes of any proceedings of a committee are confirmed and signed, there shall be furnished to the Minister a number of copies thereof as the Minister may determine.

(4) The minutes of proceedings at a meeting of a committee that relate to the discharge of functions delegated to it by the council shall, at all reasonable times, be open to the inspection of any interested person, except that, the provisions of this subsection shall not apply to the minutes of any proceedings the disclosure of which is deemed by the committee to be prejudicial to the public interest.

Delegation
of meetings
of councils
committee

14. (1) Subject to the other provisions of this paragraph, a council may delegate, either absolutely or conditionally, to a committee or to any officer of the council the power to discharge any function of the council on behalf of the council.

(2) A local authority shall not—

(a) delegate the power to discharge any functions of the council to a committee which includes persons who are not councillors; or

(b) delegate to any committee the power to—

- (i) levy a rate;
- (ii) adopt estimates of the revenues and expenditure of the council;
- (iii) borrow money;
- (iv) impose fees and charges;
- (v) to make by laws; or
- (vi) in the case of a city council or municipal council, to make appointments to the dignity of alderman or to admit or annul the admission of a person to the status of honorary freeman of the city or municipality.

(3) A council may withdraw or alter any delegation to a committee, but the withdrawal or alteration shall not affect anything done in pursuance of any decision lawfully taken by the committee.

(4) Any function discharged by a committee in the exercise of powers delegated to it under this paragraph shall be deemed to have been discharged by the council.

15. At one of the next two ordinary meetings of a council held after a meeting of a committee, the proceedings at the meeting of the committee shall be reported to the council for its consideration or, in the case of proceedings which relate to the discharge of functions delegated to the committee, for its information.

Reports by committees

16. (1) A committee may, from among its members, appoint sub-committees for the purpose of examining and reporting on any matter.

Sub-
committees

(2) Subject to the provisions of the standing orders of a council, a sub-committee shall determine its own procedure.

(3) A sub-committee shall not discharge any functions of the council which have been delegated to the committee by which it was appointed.

17. An officer or employee of a council is not personally liable in respect of any act done by the person in the execution of this Act or any other law and within the scope of the person's employment, if the person did that act in the honest belief that the person's duty under this Act or that law required or entitled the person to do it, except, that nothing in this section shall be construed as relieving a council from any liability in respect of acts of its officers or employees.
